“The flow of our ceremony, to dinner, to dancing was seamless due to Ericka's announcing and fantastic delegation - alleviating all stress from me as the bride. The band learned our wedding song, a song they had never played one week prior to wedding! Ericka had an unbelievable ability to get all of our friends and family from ages 3 to 83 dancing and having fun... She is in tune with crowd and knows which songs to keep the fun going! She has a large song list from all genres and types of music to choose from. She couldn't have recommended a more perfect song - "At Last" was perfect for walking down the aisle Our friends and family all loved the band and definitely agreed they out-shined any DJ we could have hired.”
